Breeklyn (N. Y.) detectives having secured a photograph of the Spaniard suspected of being concerned in the Goodrich murder in that city about two months since, sent duplicates of the picture to the police in all the principal cities. Yesterday afternoon, Detectives Sargent and McElfresh saw a man on Pennsylvania avenue who looked very much like the original of the photograph, and they at once arrested him, but he soon proved that he was not the individual the officers wanted, and was released. He stated that this was the second time he had been mistaken for the alleged murderer, the first time being in Philadelphia. Fearing a repetition of the inconvenience of an arrest, after he had satisfied the Philadelphia men that he was not Rossell, he had insisted, for his own protection, that they give him a certificate to that effect, which he produced, signed by Chief Detective Hines.

CIVIL SUITS FOR ALLEGED ASSAULT AND BATTERY, &c.-Messrs. Moore and Newman have entered a suit for Isaiah W. Ridgeley and wife against Henry Wolford and E. M. Hall for alleg d assault and battery, charging that Wolford did, in April, assault and beat Mrs. Ridgeley, for which they claim damages in $5,000. Also, a suit for the same parties against Wolford, charging him with having, in April, used the following words to and concerning Mrs. R .:- "You want to steal my goods. You have stolen my goods. You might just as well steal my goods. You are not honest. You are no lady. You are not honorable," and "I'll have you arrested and sent to the station-house for stealing." "By which malicious words," it is set forth in the bill, "she has been greatly im-paired and prejudiced in name and reputation," and they therefore claim $10,000 damages on Mischief Done by Sunday Raids of the Goats.—Mr. Wm. R. Smith, chairman of the parking commission, has addressed a letter to the board of public works, complaining that the goats are religiously and industriously employed every Sunday in destroying the efforts of the board to feed the esthetic soul of the people by decorating the streets with shrubbery, and inquiring if a stop cannot be put to the nuisance. The board has enclosed a copy of the letter to the health department and to Major Richards, requesting that a united effort be made to get rid or these animals. It is said that the pound-men give no attention to the running at large of animals on Sunday, and owners of stock take advantage of the day to browse them on the public parks. It is believed that a few Sunday raids would not be regarded as a violation of the Sabbath, and would effec-tually cure the evil complained of.

ARRESTED FOR AN ALLEGED ASSAULT IN BALTIMORE.—This morning, officer Rowland Gibsen, of the middle police district of Balti-more, arrived here with a warrant for Lewis Lepreux, jr., charged with assault and battery with intent to kill Charles Paulus, of that city on the 22d of September last. Complainant is the keeper of a restaurant at the corner of Central avenue and Edward street, and it is alleged that accused went into his place intovicated, and called for a pack of cards, which the proprietor refused to accommodate him with. The assault was made with a knife, and several dangerous wounds were made. After committing the assault Lepreux fled to this city, where he has been staying since. The detectives of this city assisted in the arrest. The Baltimore officer will return to Baltimore this evening CUTTING DOWN.

Mr. Thompson introduced a bill reducing and I miting the number of offices for the government of the District of Columbia, and establishing the compensation thereof; which was read a first time and ordered to be printed. [The substance of this bill was published in yesterday's STAR, and should it be passed as drawn up it will save the District about $65,000 per annum. One typographical error occurred in the abstract of the bill as printed yesterday. The proposed compensation of the thirty lamplighters should have been $500 per annum each—not $5 per day each, as printed.]

Mr. Riley introduced a bill authorizing the erection of a public school building in the city of Georgetown; read a first time and ordered to be printed. Also, a bill to authorize the Governor to institute proceedings for opening and extending Polomac street from 21 to 4th street, in the city of Georgetown; read and ordered to be printed. He also presented a petition from citizens residing on High street, asking for the extension of Potomac street, which he asked be laid over and referred with the bill; so ordered.

PAYMENT OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS

Mr. Brocks introduced a bill to provide for extending the time of payment of special assessments and for other purposes. It authorizes the issuing by the commissioners of the sinking fund of registered or compon bonds to the amount of unpaid certificates of indebtedness provided by previous legislation, not to exceed the sum of $2,009,009, payable in not less than two nor more than eight years from date; ordered to be printed.

Mr. Urell moved that the members draw for seats; agreed to.

The names of the members were drawn from the hat and in the order drawn they selected desks. Mr. Trimble obtained the first choice, and selected the desk nearest the Bpeaker's right. Exspeaker Hulse selected a desk immediately in front of the Speaker, occupied by Mr. Piper at the last session. Mr. Hunt a seat next Mr. Hulse. Mr. McKnight took the seat to the right of Mr. Hunt, shoving Mr. Carroll one seat further to the right, and Mr. Herbert took the one adjoining. Mr. Murray located between Messrs. Hulse and Trimble. The democratic trio (Messrs. Berry, Long, and Clagett,) established themselves behind Messrs. Carroll and Herbert.

Mr. Dyer moved that the Speaker invite some suitable persen to act as chaplain; carried.

The House proceeded to elect the remaining officers with the following result: G. V. Kuhn, (18th district.) engrossing clerk; John W. Paxton, (9th district.) engrossing clerk; Joseph Flynn, (16th district.) sergeant-at-arms; John Brown, (17th district.) messenger; G. H. Gates, (22d district.) door-keeper; lease Shiner, (21st district.) janitor; Masters Edward Themas, Lorene Peters, Augustus Jullien, and Willard Bambergeft, pages.

Mr. Smoot offered the following resolution, and asked that it lie on the table for the present:

Whereas extensive and important improvements have been made in the District of Columbia under the supervision of the board of public works, unparalleled in any city within a short period; and whereas it would be a hardship for many of our citizens to pay the taxes assessed for said improvements in the time required by existing laws; and whereas it is desirable and necessary to afford them relief by giving a greater length of time at a moderate rate of interest in which they may pay for said improvements and the board of public works to pay the amounts due the contracto Mr. Urell moved that the members draw for seats time providing the relation to the ple of this district.

Mr. Carroll moved that it be referred to the committee on public works and property; losi-yeas, Messrs Brown, Carroll, Cox, Marray, and Wall-5; nays, 17. The resolution was laid over temporarily. Mr. Murray offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to act with a similar committee of the House in determining upon an hour

On motion it was agreed that until otherwise ordered the House meet at 5 o'clock daily.

Mr. Shepherd introduced a resolution for the appointment of a special committee of three to apportion the several subjects embraced in the Governor's message to the standing committees when appointed; agreed to. Adjourned.

appears that I was mistaken as to the hours of the money-order offices in large cities. I was governed in my statement by the fact that some of the smaller cities, whose postmasters conduct both branches with one set of clerks, accommodated people during the usual business hours. I still contend, and "P. O." himself must admit, that the present arrangement in Washington excludes thousands from the advantages of the system who are justly entitled to it. Or all the larger cities he agmed none to it. Of all the larger cities he named, none has an equal number of temporary residents to this city, who have business interests in the various states. The daily appeals at the Post Office here, besides the communications alluded to by "P. O.," should have some weight with the Postmaster to extend the hours for the first three or four days of each month, at least, or change them from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. to 10 a. m. and 6 p. m. That, or any similar accommodation, would be hailed with joy by MANY.

Your reporter's version of the complaint against Thomas Lewis & Co. by W. B. Parisen placed me in a position I do not court. I did supervise the work on 4th street from Indiana avenue to C street, and was there taken with a vertice to C street, and was there taken with a avenue to C street, and was there taken with a serious illress. The balance of 4th street and the entire of 9th street I had nothing to do with. Respectfully, W. B. PARISEN.

POLICE COURT. Judge Snelt.—To-day, Catherine Galligher was charged with assault and battery on Julia Conners. This grew out of an altercation between these women, both standing in their respective stable doors on opposite side of an alter; blows followed, one woman striking the other with the tail-board of a cart, and several bruises and outs was the result. Julia says that Kate used a butcher knife, and showed some cuts on her face to prove it. Kate says that Julia knocked her down with the tail-board; at all events, from the accounts the scrimmage was a lively one, both being under the influence of benzine. Both principals and their witnesses were very much excited at the hearing, and after the judge had separated the chaff from the wheat among so much glibberish, he fined Kate 20 and costs. James H. REDUCTION OF CANAL FREIGHTS .- The Cum berland Times of yesterday says: Monday, by general consent of the boatmen, the freights on coal to Georgetown and Alexandria were reduced five cents to each point. The rates, therefore, are now $1.35 and $1.40, respectively. therefore, are now $1.35 and $1.40, respectively, being the closing rates of last year, and fer an advance on which the boatmen held out for several weeks at the opening of the present season, gaining the advance, which they now, howeves, voluntarily relinquish, in the hope, we suppose, that shipments will be stimulated.

Business.—Business in our city is unusually dull this season. The spring season has been backward, and the business of the river front and Chesapeake and Ohio canal has received a great set-back by the action of the canal company in advancing the rate of tolls on coal, which, added to the increase allowed the boatmen in freights, has brought the canal into competition with the railroads, which are, it is well known, bidding strong for the coal trade. Our up-town trade has suffered from the necessary interruption to travel, by the grading and sary interruption to travel, by the grading and improving the streets, and by that monopoly which runs the bridge across the river, known as the Alexandria aqueduct.

Both the balls fired by the burglar have been discovered; one entered the plastering of the wall, and the other entered the plastering of the wall, and the other went through a window pane and was picked out of the shutter. The Suicide of Lieut, Dennison. FATAL END OF AN UNHAPPY MARRIAGE.

The suicide of Lieut. Erasmus A. Dennison, of the United States steamer Saranac, at a boarding house in San Francisco, on the 18th inst., was announced by telegraph. Lieut. Dennison was about Z years of age, was a native of Columbia, Ohio, and a son of ex-postmaster General Dennison, and graduated at Appanea. General Dennison, and graduated at Annapo-lis in 1865. The San Francisco Morning Call of the 19th gives the following circumstances connected with the case:

About two years ago he married the widow of Commodord Selim E. Woodworth, and having obtained leave of absence, he shortly after his marriage went on a wedding tour through Europe, and on his return to San Francisco rejoined his vessel. The marriage, it appears, was not a happy one. On Thursday night the Saranac returned from a cruise, and Lieut. Dennison, soon after coming ashore, received a letter from his wife, of which the following is a copy:

"SAN FRANCISCO, April 17, 1873.—Lieuten-ant E. Dennison, United States Steamer Saranac— Sir: During your absence I have long and painfully considered our relations for the past few months. It will perhaps be no surprise to you to learn that I have irrevocably resolved never to live with you again, and I shall at once take steps to procure a divorce. If there be any necessity for communicating with me it must be done through the Messrs. Rodgers, my attorneys.

Accompanying Mrs. Dennison's letter was one from her attorneys, in which they informed Lieut. Dennison that they had been instructed to institute proceedings for a divorce. After receiving this letter he began to indulge in drink, and was soon very much under its infinence.
